Mary Kay Calonge is a Senior Vice President with Marsh. Presently, Mary Kay is a casualty client manager specializing in large loss-sensitive casualty program design and placement. She began working with the Cincinnati Insurance Company in 1983 as a multiline underwriter. After working for a local broker for a few years, she joined Marsh in 1989. Between 1995 and 1998, Mary Kay worked at a local managed care organization starting up its risk management program. After the firm was acquired, she returned to Marsh.

Lisa Spiller is a Vice President with Marsh. Currently, she is a client advisor in the Financial and Professional Practice (FINPRO) who consults with clients and works with markets on several executive risk lines of coverage including directors and officers liability, employment practices liability, fiduciary liability, professional liability, product recall, crime coverage, kidnap and ransom, workplace violence, employed lawyers and cyber liability. Lisa has been a Marsh client advisor for five years. Clients include many Fortune 1000 accounts. Prior to joining Marsh, Lisa was an executive protection underwriter at Chubb Insurance for over five years. Her book of business consisted of agents in Columbus, Cincinnati and northern Kentucky. The underwriting book of business was estimated at $10 million.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

With recent political, environmental, economic and business changes, the worldwide insurance industry continues to react and adapt. Business executives must be aware of their company's total cost of risk and risk profile to react effectively to market changes and continuously succeed in today's competitive marketplace.

Marsh experts, Mary Kay and Lisa, will review the state of the insurance industry, discuss forecasts and strategies for the remainder of 2010. This Hot Topic seminar will cover market updates and strategic recommendations for addressing the following: Employment Practice Liabilities, Managing Collateral, Cyber Risk and Environmental Exposures.

Attendance is limited to the first 20 ACG members registered.
