ABOUT OUR PRESENTER:

Krissi Barr, President & Founder of Barr Corporate Success and Co-Author of "Plugged: Dig Out and Get the Right Things Done," is sure to inspire as she shares with her unique combination of enthusiasm, high-energy, instinctive strategic vision and in-the-trenches experience. Known for producing amazing, sustainable bottom-line results, with a two-decade track record of increasing the profitability of every organization she's worked with, Krissi's "Can Do" attitude generates confidence and a team spirit.

Barr Corporate Success is a results-oriented firm that delivers strategy & execution, executive and team coaching, leadership training, and assessment programs to help individuals to Fortune 500 companies identify, implement and achieve their goals. Her book, "Plugged" has been endorsed by such though leaders as Marshall Goldsmith, Paul Hershey, Jeffrey Gitomer, and Matthew Kelly, with positive reviews from Golf Digest, Training & Development Magazine, and AirTran's Go Magazine among others!

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

Fast paced and chock full of powerful examples, Krissi Barr's speech on how to dig out and get the right things done will leave the audience energized and ready to take on their biggest challenges. Based on the core take-aways from her new book Plugged, Krissi will show how the acronym "PAR" turns workplace frustration into a proven methodology for winning. Life and business are not as complicated as we make them. PAR is relevant on many coaching fronts: teambuilding, leadership, personal challenge, strategic planning and implementation. It's perfect for companies dealing with change. As she outlines the critical importance of the "PAR principles" (Prioritizing, Adapting and being Responsible) she peppers in dozens of real-world examples to produce a roadmap for success.

Attendance is limited to the first 20 ACG members registered.
