2010: How Will You Grow Your Business?

Join us for a lively conversation with Bruce Broxterman, CEO of Richards Industries, Jack Kraeutler, CEO of Meridian Bioscience and Helena Lawson, Sr. VP of Business Development for Convergys for a roundtable discussion about growing their businesses in 2010. It's time to look ahead and this is a terrific opportunity to hear what three of the region's most respected executives have to say about their plans for growth in 2010. Growth will return. It must and there will be opportunities to capitalize. We intend to discuss new products, new geographic markets, and acquisitions as well as getting new business from both existing and new customers.

It's not often you can sit with a group of peers and listen to how they face the same challenges you do. This ACG Cincinnati C-Level Breakfast Roundtable is designed to provide another opportunity for you to build successful business growth through education, programs, and relationships.

Attendance is limited to the first 24 ACG corporate members registered.
To reserve your seat at the discussion table
