Protecting Your Talent and Maintaining Your Culture in a Downturn.
How has the social contract changed?
How will you respond?

Join us for a lively conversation with Tom Frey, President & CEO of Universal Trailer, Melissa Kline Scavlem, COO, Gardner Publications, Inc. and Mike Rohrkemper, CEO, Gold Star Chili for a roundtable discussion about protecting your most valuable assets: your people and your culture. We may or may not see the light at the end of the tunnel but one thing is for sure, every member of your executive team is paying very close attention. How do you reassure your most talented people when you yourself may be uncertain about the short and long term?

It's not often you can sit with a group of peers and listen how they face the same challenges you do. This ACG Cincinnati CEO Breakfast Roundtable is designed to provide another opportunity for you to build successful business growth through education, programs, and relationships.

Attendance is limited to the first 20 ACG corporate members registered.
