Learn About a Work in Progress - Pomeroy's Transformation In Its 30th Year

a discussion with

Christopher C. Froman

President and Chief Executive Officer
 Pomeroy

Chris Froman is President and Chief Executive Officer of Pomeroy, and is responsible for the strategic direction and competitive positioning of the company. Since joining Pomeroy in 2007, Chris has led the efforts to significantly grow the revenue and profitability of the firm, and currently leads the senior management team. In 2009, Pomeroy became a privately held company after being acquired by Platinum Equity Partners, a Los Angeles-based private equity firm with extensive experience in the IT services industry. He led this public-to-private transaction, and he also led the acquisition and integration of OAO Technology Solutions, Inc., a $100 million data center services company that Pomeroy acquired in 2010.
