Ancient & Recent History of Cincinnati Bell Inc.

Jack Cassidy is President and Chief Executive Officer of Cincinnati Bell Inc. He is responsible for developing, establishing and executing the company's strategic and operational plans for all Cincinnati Bell companies including Cincinnati Bell Wireless, Cincinnati Bell Telephone, Cincinnati Bell Entertainment, Cincinnati Bell Any Distance, and Cincinnati Bell Technology Solutions.

Mr. Cassidy currently serves on the boards of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber, Cincinnati Business Committee, Cincinnati Museum Center, University Hospital, 3CDC, and the Boomer Esiason Foundation, and he is the current chair of the Chamber's Minority Business Accelerator Program. He has been honored as the Personal Communications Industry Association (PCIA) Distinguished Corporate Citizen, and the Cincinnati Friars Club Man of the Year. Most recently, Jack and Cincinnati Bell were honored at the National MS Society Dinner of Champions, receiving the 2009 Silver Hope Award.

Mr. Cassidy will present the history of Cincinnati Bell and its transition from a one-product, one-city monopoly phone company 10 years ago, to being an end-to-end communications provider in the consumer and enterprise market. Included in his presentation, he will cover Cincinnati Bell's history of innovation along with a discussion of various cultural, economic and technological issues -- and technologies -- that drive change. Not your father's phone company.
