

2010 Deal Maker Honorees Share Highlights
 Of Their Greatest Deal Successes

April 13, 2011

Come join three of ACG Cincinnati's outstanding 2010 Deal Maker Award Honorees as they share intriguing stories about their careers, their pivotal role in the continued growth of Cincinnati's business community and some of their more successful deal-making activities. Our moderator for the panel is Louis A. Fender, Commercial Division Head, and Senior Vice President of Huntington National Bank.

Susan Croushore, President and CEO of The Christ Hospital has been with the organization for eight years. Prior to moving to Cincinnati, Susan was CEO of Jeanes Hospital/Temple University Health System in Philadelphia; President of St. Joseph's Hospital in Lancaster, PA, and has more than 30 years experience in the health care field.

William Rumpke Jr. is Chief Operating Officer for Rumpke Consolidated Companies, Inc. William began his career at Rumpke in 1978, working as a driver and a general laborer before founding Rumpke's Central Ohio hauling market in 1988. Under William's direction, the firm has continued to expand its environmental initiatives. Today Rumpke operates nine recycling centers and continues to invest in and develop new recycling technology, as well as alternative energy projects supporting the overall sustainability of the region.

Eugene L. Cooke III, President and CEO, co-founded Cold Jet in 1988 and has worked with the company since. Prior to becoming President and CEO in November 1999, he served in various capacities at Cold Jet including EVP Sales and Marketing and Chief Operating Officer. Before establishing the company, Mr. Cooke worked with Standard Chartered Bank at its New York headquarters facility as Assistant Vice President and China Area Specialist.
