

John Neace
Chairman
Neace Lukens

John Neace is a native of Greater Cincinnati. He holds an undergraduate degree from Northern Kentucky University and a master's degree in Public Administration from Xavier University. After graduating from NKU, he worked for an international insurance broker as head of the firm's Louisville office, helping it grow from four to 37 employees in seven years.

Recognizing a shortage of insurance services in Kentucky, John decided to launch his own company, and teamed up with Joe Lukens to start Neace Lukens in 1991. Known throughout the insurance industry as an innovator, John has been responsible for many new insurance programs designed to help companies keep pace with the changing marketplace.

Today, under the chairmanship of John Neace, Neace Lukens is ranked in the top 50 largest insurance agencies in the United States, with nearly 550 employees and offices in seven states.

The company is recognized for exceptional customer service and as one of the best places to work in Kentucky.
