

Louis “Lou” Lauch
President and Owner
KBM Inc. & Moo
Technologies LLC

Since 1972, Mr. Lauch has been the owner and President of KBM Inc., a company based in the Cincinnati, Ohio region that provides hospital housekeeping services for large, complex government and private facilities. He and his son started Moo Technologies LLC which is changing the economics of handling milk.

He is a co-owner and the Vice President of Auto Temp, Inc., owned and was President of Harper Leather Goods Manufacturing Company, Inc., a pet supply manufacturing company, from 1981 to 1999, and owns or has owned several other businesses in various industries including restaurants and real estate.

From 1970 until 1972, when he left to join KBM, Inc. Mr. Lauch was an internal auditor with U.S. Shoe Corporation.

Mr. Lauch received a Master’s degree in finance from George Washington University in 1969 and a Bachelors Degree in economics from the University of Cincinnati in 1968.