

Mike Murray
President & CEO
FirstGroup America

Mike Murray began his career in the transportation industry more than 20 years ago. He has lived in Cincinnati for over 45 years.

Mr. Murray is President & CEO of FirstGroup America, Inc. (FGA), the largest passenger ground transportation company in North America. FGA has annual revenue of approx. $5 billion, transporting 5 million passengers daily with nearly 100,000 employees, most of whom serve as drivers of school buses, city buses, airport and university shuttles and Greyhound.

Before joining FirstGroup America, Murray earned a law degree, working as a lawyer in the public transit industry, then served ten years as a trucking executive at R & L Carriers, Inc. He joined FirstGroup America in 2000 and, prior to his appointment as CEO, he undertook a number of roles including FGA General Counsel as well as President of the Transit and Student divisions of FGA.

Murray serves on the Board of Directors of the National Safety Council and he is Chairman of the Board at Chase College of Law, Northern Kentucky University.

Murray earned a bachelor's degree from Xavier University, a Master's from The Ohio State University and a law degree from Northern Kentucky University. He lives in Cincinnati Ohio with his wife and 3 children.