May 2009

As the Immediate Past President of ACG Cincinnati, I would like to explain an initiative executed during my term as President. An affiliation was developed into a partnership between ACG Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Business Courier that has proven to be one of our most successful initiatives of the past several years. Through an ongoing advertising plan and the publishing and distribution of two dedicated ACG supplements each year with the Business Courier, the Association has gained tremendous exposure throughout the greater Cincinnati business community, additional opportunities for our program sponsors, increased program attendance and growth in membership and participation.

I would suggest that all ACG Chapters explore relationship opportunities with their local business journal. We have seen a significant return on our investment.
